LAND USE: R-1/ Medium Density 17.4 DU/ac

APPLICANT: Hunter Eldridge, AIA on behalf of Ben and Heather Lazare, Owners

CEQA: Categorical Exemption, Section 15301(e)(1)

RECOMMENDATION

Receive report, hold public hearing, and approve AP and HPP 16-1004 based on the findings and subject to the staff-recommended conditions.

BACKGROUND

On November 28, 2016 Hunter Eldridge, applied for an Architectural Permit and Historic Preservation Permit AP, HPP 16-1004. The Architectural Permit would allow the removal of the non- historic 645 sf existing garage including a first floor addition of a 555 sf garage including 210 sf living space which would connect the garage and existing 998 sf historic single story house, to also allow the addition of a second story master bedroom addition of 570 sf for a total residence of 2,338 square feet. The Historic Preservation Permit would allow relief from the South side setback requirements. The proposed project was continued from the January 10, 2017 ARB hearing with guidance to redesign and create visual interest and less massing on the addition.

DISCUSSION

The subject residence most closely resembles that of a Queen Anne-style cottage constructed circa-1888 and has few alterations since its original construction and been well maintained. The subject residence is currently on the City of Pacific Grove's Historic Resources Inventory (HRI) and is considered to be locally significant. The period of historical significance for this property is from 1873-1902, the "Early Development of Pacific Grove" period. The features are noted on the documents referenced; copies are attached to the agenda report. The style of the new construction as proposed is similar to and subtly differentiated from that of the historic house making it visually clear between historic and new construction. The proposed addition of a two story addition replacing a large modern garage and remodel of a substandard porch to the rear of the historic house is consistent with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties.

The following General Plan, Historic and Archaeological Resources, Chapter 7, goals, policies, and programs are applicable to the Architectural Permit application.

Program M Ensure that development in the Retreat, and in other historic areas, is consistent with maintaining their traditional scale and character.

The property is located in an Area of Special Biological Significance

Zoning Code

The proposed project is in conformance with all requirements of the R-1 zone, including but not limited to setbacks except for the legal non-conforming exiting side yard setback, height limits, and site coverage.

The proposed project will have a building coverage of 39.4%, which is within the allowable maximum building coverage of 40%, pursuant to P.G.M.C. 23.16.040. The proposed project will have a site coverage of 56.5%, which is within the allowable maximum site coverage of 60%. The proposed project will have a gross floor area 2,338 square feet, which is within the allowable maximum gross floor area of 2,373 square feet.

S.23.76.060 allows relief from zoning standards for properties on the Historic Resources Inventory to permit the restoration or improvements to a structure on the HRI. R-1 side yard setback requirements are 10% of the lot width. In this case the required side yard has a setback of 8'. The existing legal non-conforming setback for the south side yard is 6'2.5". The proposed addition would allow this non-conforming setback to remain. The existing non-compliant north side yard setback of 5' will be brought into compliance with the removal of the existing garage and the adjusted footprint of the new garage will meet the required side yard setback of 8'.

The proposed addition has a building height of 23'11.25" which is under the allowable 25'

Trees and Landscaping:

No tree removal is being proposed as part of this development. The City Arborist will insure that tree protection measures are being met.

Architectural Review Guidelines for Historic Buildings:

The project proposal appears to adhere to the following Architectural Review Guidelines:

Guideline 1; Neighborhood Context:

The proposed addition complements the neighborhood. The neighborhood itself retains many historic properties. There are newer buildings as well as altered historic buildings which make reference to the historic context; neighborhood change should be slow and evolutionary.

Guideline 2: Effects of additions on historic scale and character:

By placing a connector back from the historic building the new work can be distinguished from the historic building which assists to preserves the overall character of the historic structure.

Guideline #3: Preservation of character-defining features.

The proposed addition preserves distinctive features that serve to define the structure as historic.

Guideline #4: Compatibility of new work with old:

By differentiating the new work with the historic building the addition is compatible with the original historic building.

Historic Review:

The November 23, 2016 Phase 2 Historic Report by Elizabeth Moore was updated February 1, 2017 and has concluded the proposed project is in conformance with the Secretary of the Interior Standards. The assessment found that the proposed design alterations to the historic residence meet the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation. The proposed changes do not impact the remaining character-defining features or overall historic integrity of the building. The style of the new construction as proposed, is similar to and subtly differentiated from that of the historic house. Because the proposed alterations to the building meet the Standards, the alterations are considered as mitigated to a level of less than a significant impact on the historic resource and do not constitute a substantial adverse change to the historic resource.

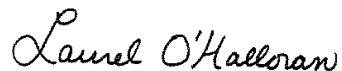

Environmental Determination:

The project qualifies for a Class 1 exemption from CEQA requirements, pursuant to Section 15301(e) (1) – Existing Facilities. The proposed addition and alterations do not present any unusual circumstances that would result in a potentially significant environmental impact. The proposed alterations do not constitute a substantial adverse change to the historic resource, thus conforming to the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA).

PHASE I & II HISTORIC ASSESSMENTS

LAZARE RESIDENCE - BUILT IN 1894

213 Granite Street, Pacific Grove CA 93950

INTRODUCTION

The following Phase II Historic Assessments for the residential property located at 213 Granite Ave (APN 006-314-016-000), in Pacific Grove, has been prepared as required by the City of Pacific Grove and the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA).

PHASE I HISTORIC ASSESSMENT

HISTORIC CONTEXT

The period of historical significance for this property is from 1873-1902, the "Early Development of Pacific Grove " period. When assessed per the City of Pacific Grove's Historic Context Statement (HCS), approved in October 2011, though late in this period of significance (or early in the next), this building possesses features of the Queen Anne Cottage Style, an important style in this period. Development of this property shows on neither the HCS map of properties constructed during "Early Development of Pacific Grove" period (1873-1902) page 46, nor the map of "Pacific Grove Comes of Age" period (1903-1926), page 117

In the United States in this period, George Custer is killed at Little Big Horn, The Panama Canal was begun, Coca Cola was invented, Albert Einstein was born, President McKinley assassinated, Theodore Roosevelt becomes president.

In Pacific Grove, from the first annual camp meeting and first lots sold in the 1870's, to Charles Tuttle's drugstore opening, construction of the Methodist-Episcopal Church and Assembly Hall, and the opening of the Pacific Grove Police Department in the 1880's, to the opening of the first public school, the first electric lights and streetlights, it was a period of development and change. The subject house was constructed at the very end of this period, just prior to the establishment of Pacific Grove Library, and both The Mayflower Church and The Mammoth Stables Burned down.

The facet of history associated with this particular property is significant in regard to the birth and growth of Pacific Grove. In this period, tent cabins were the beginning, giving way to vernacular buildings. As the period went on there was a shift toward a greater variety of architectural styles including a range of such as Gothic Revival (1870s-1890s), Queen Anne (1880s-1905), as well as Italianate (1870s-1880s), Arts and Crafts, and Prairie or Bungalow styles to name a few. It is a period that saw changes and important trends in art, design and culture as well as architecture, the taming and settling of frontier.

The residence on the subject property suggests Queen Anne Cottage Style, per the HCS description of that style with: use of applied decoration, concentrated on the porch, fish scale shingles in gable ends. Secondary building elements and the garage reflect a more Vernacular Style, with simple forms, wood siding, medium pitched roof and small roof overhangs. There are a variety of wood sash window types, mostly double hung.

The 1888 building retains original design integrity and is in very good condition, having been well maintained. When considered in the neighborhood as a whole, the property has sufficiently significant character to convey the aspect of history with which that style is associated. The neighborhood itself retains many historic properties. There are also newer buildings, as well as altered older buildings, which also make reference to the historic context. Thus, the neighborhood is important in illustrating the historic context.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

The City of Pacific Grove and Monterey County Assessor's records show the single family dwelling was built on the property at 213 Granite, in 1888.

At the time of construction the subject house was owned by R. L. Holman, and was later sold to his son W. R. Holman. It is located directly behind the large house we know today as "The Holman House", a Victorian converted to Spanish style, on Lighthouse avenue. The subject property has been passed down through the family and is still owned by direct decedents of the Holman family, Ben and Heather Lazare.

This house was originally built as a one story, single-family dwelling. It was a rectangle, the gable end facing the street, and a shed-roofed porch with across the facade. The façade is simply detailed with modest trims and posts. A porch was added on the rear of the building, where later the porch enclosed with lesser quality construction. The modern detached garage is constructed to match the historic construction of the house.

DESCRIPTION OF THE HISTORIC RESOURCE

Per the HCS, the architectural style of subject house most closely resembles that of a Queen Anne Style cottage.

The house is a simple rectangle with a medium pitched hip roof and a gable roof element, with decorative fish-scale shingles in the gable end, over the east half of the façade and front porch. The windows are the original double hung sash, those on the front of the house have small ornamental divided lights around the edges.

The detached single car garage sits on the north end of the property, beside and set back from the front of the historic house. The garage exterior is similar to the horizontal board siding of the house though there is little roof overhang.

There is tidy landscaping, including a white picket fence around the property, and a variety of shaped shrubs, hedges and a small tree.

The subject property is part of a neighborhood of one and two story houses of varying sizes and styles but the majority were built in the end of the 1800s or the first quarter of the 1900s. The neighborhood is tidy. Most of the houses are there are in good condition. The subject house has had few alterations and been well maintained. The non-historic detached garage addition is in keeping with the character of the original construction.

EVALUATION FOR HISTORIC SIGNIFICANCE

The following assessment considers the subject property for historic significance and integrity based on the specific evaluation criteria for listing of the National Register of Historic Places (NRHP), the California Register of Historic Resources (CRHR), and the Pacific Grove Historic Resources Inventory (PGHRI). Each of the three resource inventories' evaluation criteria asks more specific, increasingly local questions of concern. A resource that does not qualify for listing based on the National Criteria may still demonstrate significant integrity for California or Pacific Grove listing.

National Register of Historic Places Sec. 60.4 Criteria for Evaluation:

The quality of significance in American history, architecture, archeology, engineering, and culture is present in districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects that possess integrity of location, design, setting, materials, workmanship, feeling, and association, and:

2. Did anyone of great importance to the region, state or nation occupy the property during the productive period of their lives?

The City of Pacific Grove Municipal Code, Sec. 23.76.025, evaluation criteria includes consideration of the following:

(a) Whether the structure has significant character, interest or value as part of the development, heritage or cultural characteristics of the city of Pacific Grove, the state of California, or the United States;

(f) Whether it is a notable work of an architect or master builder whose individual work has significantly influenced the development of the city of Pacific Grove;

No reference to an architect or builder could be found.

(g) Whether it embodies elements of architectural design, detail, materials or craftsmanship that represent a significant architectural innovation;

SUMMARY

Based on this evaluation, the building on the subject property at 213 Granite Street in Pacific Grove, California:

Does not appear to meet the national criteria of significance used for determining eligibility for the listing of resources, as it does not demonstrate historic significance when evaluated using NRHR Criteria. Further, it does not demonstrate, as stated in the NRHP Guidelines a "quality of significance in American History, architecture, archeology, engineering or culture";

Does not appear to meet the state criteria for listing, as it does not demonstrate historic significance when evaluated using CRHR Criteria;

Does not retain sufficient overall integrity to convey historical significance and qualify for listing in the National or California Registers. It does not demonstrate sufficient historic integrity, based on evaluation of location, design, setting, workmanship, materials, feeling and association. The building design, materials, and workmanship are not exemplary as they relate to construction methods and architectural details, though the context of the building has not changed dramatically since its period of significance it has changed significantly;

Appears to meet the Pacific Grove criteria of significance used for determining eligibility for the listing of resources, when evaluated using the PGHRI criteria

PHASE I ASSESSMENT CONCLUSION

Based on the above analysis, the subject property located at 213 Granite Street, Pacific Grove CA., meets the criteria for historic significance per The City of Pacific Grove Municipal Code, Sec. 23.76.025, based on evaluation criteria a, d, h, i, j, & k.

PHASE II HISTORIC ASSESSMENT

The following is an analysis of the proposed alterations to the historically significant structures at 213 Granite Street, Pacific Grove CA, for the purpose of evaluating of their compliance with the Secretary of the Interiors Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, 1995: Rehabilitation.

An addition has been designed for the subject property by Architect Hunter Eldridge. It appears to be sensitive to the existing historic material, the character of the house and neighborhood, and in keeping with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Treatment of Historic Properties.

This proposed project includes an interior remodel, the removal of the existing non-historic detached garage with two-story building element proposed to take its place. The addition will include a garage below, living space above, and a minimal single story element attaching it to the 1888 house. All additions are proposed to the east of the existing building. An existing poorly constructed enclosed porch on the south east/rear corner of the house will be rebuilt, and the roof line altered there to extend the existing hip roof. Massing, forms and details of the new element are proposed to be similar to, but differentiated from the historic building. The addition will be down hill and the façade set back from the original house, helping to visually reduce its height.

New double hung wood windows at the addition will be of similar style, dimension and materials to that of the existing house. Size and grouping of the windows on the old house will be referenced in the design of the new. Several windows and exterior doors to the rear of the original building will be relocated to facilitate circulation and an updated interior.

The style of the new construction as proposed, is similar to and subtly differentiated from that of the historic house. On the plans for the proposed project, where materials like those of the original construction are proposed for new construction, the dimensions of the new vary slightly, but visibly, from the existing. This will help make a visually clear differentiation between historic and new construction. The historic portion of the building has horizontal siding, the new will also have horizontal siding, varying somewhat in dimension from the early 20th century clapboard, reflecting changes in milling practices.

CROSS SECTION - PROPOSED

Evaluation per The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, 1995:

REHABILITATION

1. A property will be used as it was historically or be given a new use that requires minimal change to its distinctive materials, features, spaces, and spatial relationships.

Yes. The property will continue to be used as a single family residence. Changes are proposed to the footprint to make it more suitable for a modern lifestyle. Distinctive materials, features, spaces and spatial relationships will be unaltered or minimally changed. The garage will remain unchanged.

2. The historic character of a property will be retained and preserved. The removal of distinctive materials or alteration of features, spaces, and spatial relationships that characterize a property will be avoided.

Yes. The historic character and spatial relationships will be preserved. Proposed alterations limited to the non-historic portions of the existing construction.

3. Each property will be recognized as a physical record of its time, place, and use. Changes that create a false sense of historical development, such as adding conjectural features or elements from other historic properties, will not be undertaken.

Yes. Proposed material and detail are subtly but visibly different than the historic portion of the house. The new references the historic forms and materials, consistent with the period of significance of the house and its historic context.

4. Changes to a property that have acquired historic significance in their own right will be retained and preserved.

Yes. There have been a few and small alterations to the original house, most will remain. A flat roofed rear porch was tacked on, and later enclosed. This substandard construction, will be rebuild with more habitable construction.

5. Distinctive features, finishes, and construction techniques or examples of craftsmanship that characterize a property shall be preserved.

Yes. Distinctive elements characterizing the property will be preserved.

7. Chemical or physical treatments, such as sandblasting, that cause damage to historic materials shall not be used. The surface cleaning of structures, if appropriate, shall be undertaken using the gentlest means possible.

Yes, historic materials will be undertaken with care.

- 8. Significant archeological resources affected by a project shall be protected and preserved. If such resources must be disturbed, mitigation measures shall be undertaken.

Not applicable to this project.

- 9. New additions, exterior alterations, or related new construction will not destroy historic materials, features, and spatial relationships that characterize the property. The new work will be differentiated from the old and will be compatible with the historic materials, features, size, scale and proportion, and massing to protect the integrity of the property and its environment.

Yes. Proposed work will preserve, not destroy, historic materials, features or special relationships characteristic of the property, and will be differentiated from and compatible with the historic to protect the integrity of property and environs.

- 10. New additions and adjacent or related new construction will be undertaken in such a manner that, if removed in the future, the essential form and integrity of the historic property and its environment would be unimpaired.

Yes. The proposed addition will be outside of the historic footprint. The new construction will be attached to the existing cottage on a portion of the north elevation. East, south and west exterior walls, roof and floor structures will remain intact. Some minor adjustment of door and windows locations, limited to the side and rear elevations, and to interior spaces are proposed. The fabric, essence, integrity of the historic Queen Ann cottage will remain.
