8. Reports of HRC Members.

Member Sawyer asked if there is anything we can do to pursue CLG status.

Member McCord suggested we write a letter to specific situations, example come across a home that could be a collection of homes of that type fabricate send a letter to the City Council.

Member sawyer commented that our HRI is a "mess" and it is not accurate. She expressed the need to convey to the Council that we need CLG status to update our HRI.

Member McCord commented that members should look at this election and find out where candidates stand on the CLG status and vote accordingly.

9. Reports of Council Liaison.

Council Member Ken Cuneo said he had nothing to report except his family recently purchased 300 acre lot outside of Albany, New York and they donated 270 acres to the Nature Conservatory and are restoring an 1820 farmhouse.
