

RESOLUTION NO. 14-033

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF PACIFIC GROVE APPROVING A REQUEST FROM MONTEREY-SALINAS TRANSIT (MST) TO PLACE A ONE-EIGHTH OF ONE PERCENT COUNTY-WIDE SALES TAX MEASURE ON THE NOVEMBER 4, 2014 BALLOT

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Monterey-Salinas Transit District (MST) currently provides a wide variety of services for veterans, seniors and persons with disabilities and traditional sources of federal funding for those services have been discontinued, causing these services to face elimination within less than a year; and

WHEREAS, the MST Board is considering placing a one-eighth of one percent county-wide local sales tax measure on the November 2014 ballot for funding those senior, veteran and persons with disability services that face elimination due to the elimination of federal funding for those purposes; and

WHEREAS, MST requests concurrence from the City of Pacific Grove that said ballot measure be submitted to the voters of the District subject to review by a citizens' oversight committee and subject to a special audit.

RESOLUTION

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of Pacific Grove hereby concurs with the request from MST to place a county-wide sales tax measure on the November 4, 2014 ballot for the purpose of providing funding for the services identified in this resolution.

Upon the motion of Councilmember Cuneo, the foregoing resolution was PASSED AND ADOPTED at a meeting of the City Council of Pacific Grove on this 18th day of June, 2014 by the following vote:
